

Clothing for Young Men and Students

Not the freakish so-called "college clothes" you see in the magazines, but vigorous new styles for men of good taste. Suits with plenty of "pep" in cut and fit, and made of the choicest new weaves and colorings that the market affords.

Seven absolutely new styles to choose from, some more advanced than others, but every style made to satisfy the mandate of perfect taste. $15 to $30. First long pants suits, $10, $12, $15 to $25.

The Soft Hat Young fellows like best has a fairly high creased crown and nearly flat brim, with roll or welt edge and silk band and bow. Pearl shades are in high favor. So are the new agate shades and new African browns, $2 and $3. Latest styles in caps 50c and $1.00.

New Shirts, Neckwear, Underwear, Pajamas, Bath Robes, Sweaters, Mackinaw coats, sporting coats, overcoats in knit leather mixtures, shoes and luggage for the college man.

TURK FORCES GUARDING DARDANELLES REPORTED IN SERIOUS SITUATION

Army Thinned By Heavy and Continued Attacks By Land and Sea Forces of Allies And Will Be Unable to Hold Out Much Longer, Says American Near Constantinople.

Athens, Sunday, Sept. 13, via Paris, Sept. 13, 11 a. m.—An American citizen of standing in Athens has received advice from Constantinople, which he says are trustworthy, that the position of the Turkish forces defending the Dardanelles is precarious. He said the Turkish front, thinned by the heavy losses which the fighting has entailed on both sides, is finding it increasingly difficult to hold the lines against the French and British.

Turkey's position at sea is described as disadvantageous. The former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, retained, respectively the Sultan Selim and Modulus, are said to have been incapacitated, while the Russian fleet preys upon Turkish shipping.

According to this information, Turkish affairs are under the control of a triumvirate with autocratic powers, consisting of Enver Pasha, minister of war; Talaat Bey, minister of the interior; and Mehmed Bey, chief of police of Constantinople. Dissatisfaction among the Moslems is reported and it is said the Shiek Ul Islam was dismissed because he did not approve of measures taken against the Armenians. The committee of union and progress is reported to be virtually superseded by a committee which is responsible to the wishes of the triumvirate.

The American's informant states that Armenians are being sent to concentration camps at various points, being driven afoot or forwarded in box cars. He adds that the reported massacre of Christians in Asia Minor are being duplicated in the present instance and that in some cases only a comparatively small part of the expelled Armenians reach the concentration camps alive. Henry Morgenthau, American ambassador at Constantinople, has exerted every effort to protect the Armenians but apparently his endeavors have been unavailing. It is stated that American women who attempted to go with the refugees to look out for Armenian children were turned back and that a number of young American girls who were students at the American college at Constantinople fell into the hands of the Turks.

Owing to the interruption of sea transport the importation of coal and transportation is almost impossible. The crops were good but it has been almost impossible to harvest them. Petroleum costs one dollar a gallon and the price of sugar has increased seven fold.

The American's informant states that agreement said to have been reached between Turkey and Bulgaria has not affected a definite settlement of relations but that, to the contrary, the Turks are steadily erecting defenses against the Bulgarians.

JIM MACDONALD WILL PRESIDE AT GOOD ROADS MEET

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 13.—Governor Charles W. Gates, of Vermont, who was here to preside over the Pan-American road conference, was on his way today to Franklin, Vt., to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. L. Rebecca Gates, who died there Saturday.

James H. MacDonald, director of the road congress and former Connecticut state highway commissioner, will act as the presiding officer of the congress.

JAMES PENDLETON DEAD.

Stonington, Conn., Sept. 13.—James Pendleton, former state senator and representative in the General Assembly and former warden of the borough, died Saturday night at Hollis, L. I., according to word received here today. He moved to that place two years ago. He was a prominent Mason and leaves a widow, three sons, three brothers and two sisters.

MASONIC NOTES.

At a stated communication of St. Johns lodge, No. 3, to be held at Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, Sept. 15, at 7:30 o'clock, the E. A. degree will be conferred.

MANY GIFTS.

More than 40 prizes will be awarded by the Good Housing Association to the contestants who kept their yards and flower gardens in good condition during the summer. A list of the winners will be announced in a few days.

BOARDER SHOTS MAN AND WIFE; HIDES IN WOODS

Greenwich Posse Scours Country for Man Who Sends Two to Hospital.

(Special to The Farmer.)

Greenwich, Sept. 13.—Yelling at the top of his voice, "I'll fill you both full of lead," and brandishing a pistol as he entered the dining room, at breakfast, this morning, Robert Harding fired four shots at Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Walker, with whom he boarded.

Each of the four bullets took effect, two striking the husband, and two the wife. The screams of the victims and the pistol reports quickly roused the neighborhood. Harding was last seen running into the woods near the Edgewood Inn. A posse of police and citizens is scouring the woods.

Harding's attempt to fire a fifth shot was futile as there were only four loaded cartridges in the weapon. Mr. Walker was hit in the right shoulder and on the left side of the head. His wife was wounded on the right cheek and on the right knee. Both were taken to the Greenwich hospital where it was said that their wounds probably would not result seriously.

Harding is said to have felt aggrieved at Mrs. Walker over some trivial matter. Harding is 55 years old and Mr. and Mrs. Walker are each about 45.

The Bethlehem Steel Co. will spend $300,000 to add three stories to its No. 2 machine shop at South Bethlehem, Pa., which is engaged in the manufacture of guns.

OBITUARY

MARY KELLY ANDREWS.
Death came on Saturday evening at the Bridgeport hospital to Mary Kelly, wife of George Andrews. Mrs. Andrews, who had been ill for a long time, was widely known in the East Side where she was born and had a husband, two stepdaughters, Catherine and Anna Gaffney and a brother, John Kelly. The body had been removed to the undertaking establishment of Michael J. Gagnon of 1051 Broad street, whence the funeral will be held.

LOUISA N. SHAFFER WILLIAMS.
The funeral of Louisa N. Shaffer Williams, whose death occurred on Friday, will be held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Zumsteg, 63 Elmwood avenue, at 7:30 this evening. Rev. Ernest F. Wales, pastor of the Grace M. E. church, will conduct the services. The body will be taken to Paterson, N. J., where interment will be in Cedar Lawn cemetery.

ELLA T. HARTWELL.
The funeral of Ella T. Hartwell, who died at her home in Walnut Beach, was held from the mortuary chapel of Henry E. Bishop, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was attended by an unusually large gathering of relatives and friends of the deceased. Rev. John McLaren Richardson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment was in Westport.

WILLIAM LINDEL.
William Lindel, who was spending a few weeks of vacation in this city, died Saturday night at 251 Coleman street, after a lengthy illness. The young man, who was 19 years of age, is survived by his parents in New Hampshire, who are coming here to make arrangements for the funeral.

CHARLES A. HURLEY.
Charles A. son of Nellie and ex-lieutenant, died this morning at the home of his parents, 850 Stratford avenue, after a lengthy illness. Mr. Hurley, who was 28 years of age and unmarried, was well known in the East End. He was a plumber. Surviving him are his parents, a brother William and a sister, Mrs. Ella Keenan.

JOSHUA HALL.
The funeral of Joshua Hall, who died on Friday, was held from his late home, 246 Nichols street, at 2:30 this afternoon and was attended by many relatives and friends of the deceased. Rev. Daniel N. Lewis, pastor of the Newfield M. E. church, conducted the services. Interment was in Park cemetery.

CHARLES W. HARVEY.
The funeral of Charles W. Harvey, aged 70 years, who died on Saturday, in the Hartford hospital, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the mortuary chapel of Henry E. Bishop. Rev. C. W. Arson, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, conducted the services. Interment was in Park cemetery.

MARY L. FISHER.
The funeral of Mary L. Fisher was held this afternoon at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Sheehan of 374 Barnum avenue at 8:30 and from St. Charles' church at 9 o'clock, where the solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Thomas P. Gloster, assisted by Rev. Patrick J. McGivney, as deacon and Rev. James V. Hession as sub-deacon. At the offertory the choir sang, "De Profundis." After the mass Miss Jessie Murray sang "There is My Home," and as the body was being borne from the church "Nearer My God to Thee." The floral tributes were exceedingly beautiful and the attendance of relatives and friends was unusually large. Rev. Father Gloster read the committal service at St. Michael's cemetery. The bearers were Harry Connors, William Dowd, George Smith and Neil, Joseph and Jack Morgan.

Weston Residents To Ask County For Repair of Highway

The county commissioners will hold a hearing tomorrow morning on the petition of Weston residents to have the road from the Aspetuck bridge to the Easton town line put in repair. It is claimed the highway is in poor condition now and the town of Weston has refused to make any improvements.

Rheumatism A Home Cure Given by One Who Had It.

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally, I found a remedy that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden by Rheumatism, and it effected a cure in every case.

I want every sufferer from any form of rheumatism to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of curing rheumatism, you may then send the price of it, one dollar, but, understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when positive relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

HIBERNIANS MAKE EXTENSIVE PLANS FOR RIFLES' FAIR

Parade Will Precede Formal Opening of Four Nights of Entertainment.

Commencing Thursday evening with a big parade in which a number of fraternal organizations will take part, Company F. Hibernian Rifles will give a fair at Eagles' hall Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday evenings the proceeds of which will be devoted to the payment for new equipment, uniforms and rifles, with which the company will make its first appearance Thursday evening. The company is a part of Division No. 1, A. O. H., and that organization and the Ladies' Auxiliaries Nos. 10 and 50 are assisting in making the coming fair a success.

An extensive plan of entertainment has been mapped out for the four evenings of the carnival, and some of the best known of the younger musicians of the city will take part in the entertainment each evening. These include Miss Katherine Lombard, John McDonough, in songs; David Sullivan in songs and original dances; Miss Tessie McGuire, John Galvin and Patrick Lynch in original step dances. There will also be dancing every evening with excellent music by Bracken and Quigley's orchestra, refreshments will be served, and the committee has arranged many surprises for their patrons. The Ladies' Auxiliary No. 50 will have charge of a very handsome booth where there will be numerous articles to dispose of.

The parade Thursday evening will form at 7:30 in State street with Col. T. J. Murphy as grand marshal, and assisted by Daniel J. O'Connor, Flinn Dunn, Frederick C. Mullins, John Farrell and John Broderick as aides. The True Blue Drum Corps will furnish the music. The organizations in line will include Company F. Hibernian Rifles, in command of Capt. Richard Kiley; Major John P. Mowell commanding Co. A. Captain Maloney and Co. K. Captain Burke, Thirty-ninth Regiment, Uniformed Rank, Woodmen of the World; Eagles' Degree Team, Bridgeport Aerie, F. O. E.; Division No. 1 of Stratford and Division No. 1 of Bridgeport; A. O. H.; officers and members of Ladies' Auxiliaries No. 10 and 50 in automobiles. The line of march will be to Broad street, to Gilbert street, Main street, to Madison avenue and Eagles' hall.

Members of the common council and the city officials have been invited to attend at the opening of the carnival and many of them have accepted the invitation. Tickets have been for sale in the hands of members for a considerable time, and there is every reason to believe there will be a large attendance upon the opening night and during the continuance of the carnival. The members of the company have left nothing undone which would add to the entertainment of their guests and have been ably assisted by members of the Division and the Ladies' Auxiliaries. A handsome souvenir program with a history of the company and pictures of the committees and officers will be distributed during the entertainment.

Isabella M. Hadden of Norwalk has brought suit against Patrick Angione of Norwalk on the charge that Angione is the father of her child. In a Norwalk justice court Angione was bound over to the civil common pleas court under $750 bonds.
